School Harvest

This was a joyful celebration in a packed church! There seemed to be more parents than usual and by the time everyone was in, we were struggling to find enough seating for everyone—standing room only!

Year 4 started us off with a lively song and dance routine complete with rara pompoms and flashing ribbons, exhorting us to 'come to the harvest', then the other classes in turn showed us artwork, read poems, and read prayers. We also had sign language and action songs. Not to be outdone Father Matt performed a magic trick involving scissors and a £10 note! A visitor from the Food Bank thanked everyone for their donations, and told some stories to explain why their work is needed. Families may need help because industrial injuries, job losses, and sudden household expenses cause loss of earnings, or lack of available money to buy food. School holidays or expensive school uniforms also cause problems. Gifts such as ours are greatly appreciated especially into the run up to Christmas.

Coffee Morning

With such wet cold weather it was hardly surprising that many of our regular supporters were missing. And the morning got off to a bad start with news that Bill had taken Mary R to hospital to check out an injured foot that was giving her problems. However, the rest of us rallied round and a surprising number of new visitors turned up—including tiny Harriette and her Daddy who both live nearby. Harriette was beautifully behaved until she began to get hungry, but fortunately Mummy arrived and solved the problem.

Meanwhile the chance was taken for some late spring cleaning, and a reorganisation of the cupboard. It is now tidy(!) and we know what stock we have/need. The shelves will be labelled—please try to keep things on the right shelves. The office is now cleared and is to be let to the Mother's Union in the near future. Please do NOT put anything in there! Thankyou Queenie for your help. The morning's takings were £35.37
