Christmas stars.

The challenge set a few weeks ago was to make stars to decorate the church at Christmas, along with many other churches in the country. How are you getting on?

They can be in any style, and size or with any medium.—so gentlemen, it is not just sewing and knitting for the ladies, so get out your wood, metal paper etc and have a go!

These are some patchwork and crocheted ones which have been stuffed, but they could be single layers.

These card stars are for a special display. You can write in them the name(s) of those missing from your Christmas, and they will be hung together as a memory tree.

You have three weeks to catch up please.

Remember - any size, style, or medium. We will decorate the church for the 23rd.
