Collect

O God,
you know us to be set in the midst
of so many and great dangers,
that by reason of the frailty
of our nature
we cannot always stand upright:
grant to us such strength and protection
as may support us in all dangers
and carry us through all temptations;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

REMINDERS*Have you filled in and returned your electoral roll form?*NO CAMEO MEETINGS UNTIL MARCH*16th Saturday 10-4 Craft Fair St Mary le Wigford church*An invitation to Communion

Come to this table, not because you must but because you may,

Not because you are strong, but because you are weak.

Come, not because any goodness of your own gives you a right to come, but because you need mercy and help.

Come, because you love the Lord a little and would like to love him more.

Come because he loved you and gave himself for you.

Come and meet the risen Christ, for we are his Body.

From Gathering for Worship: Patterns and Prayers for the Community of Disciples.
2005

As I try to pray for the people on our prayer list, I struggle to pray meaningfully for some, whose names have been on the list for a long time, but about whom I know nothing, and I am sure I am not the only one in this situation. I would like to suggest that to aid meaningful prayer, we learn something about these people, and are updated from time to time. If you are connected to someone on the list please and would like to do so, please let me have a sentence or two, to help our prayers.

I will start with the two newest on the list.

Eric Allen, husband of Doris who has been a loyal supporter of the church for many years. Eric has been diagnosed with terminal cancer, and Doris now has him at home, to nurse with the help of MacMillan Nurses.

John Beardsley the husband of my college friend Suzanne. He has cancer of the bowel which has spread to the kidneys. He begins 12 weeks of chemotherapy in a couple of weeks, and is determined to beat this!
